

CHARING-CROSS THEATRE

NEARLY OPPOSITE THE CHARING CROSS HOTEL AND RAILWAY STATION.

---

MR. JOHN S. CLARKE

PROPRIETOR AND MANAGER.

---

Excellentis theatre has undergone great alterations. These have been in sinnit taste, and the house now is one of the prettiest in London.
Its interior is as bright as may be, and the decorations have an unusually elegant and attractive effect. On the scenery, too, as well as before it, great pains have been bestowed and the manner in which the stage is turned to account reflects highest credit on the management.
Those who have watched Mr. Clarke's career will not be surprised to find he has opened with a classical comedy. His preference for our older dramas has been marked. Almost all his successes have been in standard pieces, and we owe Mr. Clarke thanks for his systematic attempt to elevate the drama."—Sunday Times.
